NO. 24.

LAST CHANCE. - Don't forget the Commissioner's sale of John Gaper's desirable residence at noon Wepnesday, May 31st.

THE Lexington Press says that Nix's rash act will cost his mother $500 forfeiture of bond, by his non-appearance. THE Redmon distillery, in Harrison county, closed Wednesday after having made about 1,500 barrels of popular death. A prophet is without profit in his own country, if one may judge from the credits on our subscription list of the Paris precinct. post second in one a lew better G. G. White's distillery stopped running several days ago, after making over over 9,000 barrels of whisky during the season, man yrear term A THE stomach pump is a bad article, because it's good for Nix. (We sold this pun to "Doc" Weatherby, the clothier, for 25 cents.)

Under the new town laws a person who keeps a howling dog and thereby annoys his neighbors can be lined ter dollars - Stanford Journals : Sod EVI

Geo. W. Pale, formerly of the Cincinnati Gazette, but now traveling in the interest of the "Penny Paper," is in town, and will no doubt establish the bright little sheet on a permanent footing here the same little white one that the clown at Sell's Bro,'s circus carried caround by the tail, and didn't say a word. The dog had one consolation on that occasion-it didn't hear the clown's jokes.

Bruce Champ's paper, the Semi-Weekly Bourbon News, is fruit for the scissors.— [Lexington Transcript.

You'd better stimulate yourself to wager! Wednesday's Transcript prover the assertion.

A New dance, which promises to fill long felt want at summer resorts, during warm evenings, has just been invented The couples have nothing to do but to stand up and hug while the band plays funeral dirge.

A suit for $5,000 damages has been filed in the Bath Circuit Court by Wm. Williamson against Bob Anderson for shooting and disabling James Williamson, a son of the plaintiff, and under twenty-one years of age.

A certain young lady wants to know the quickest and most sure way to kil roaches.-[Lexington Press.

Our advice would be, providing a club wont answer, read them one of McChesney's religious poems.

H. T. Paton offers his large and varied stock of goods at auction prices. Now is the time to buy furniture, carpets, tin, wooden, china and glassware, and a general assortment of house furnishing goods at your own prices. my26-tf

THE Fayette National Bank, of Lexing ton, has compromised with P. F. Maguire, by paying him $5,500, half the amount of his claim on the bonds alleged to have been stolen by Henry White, the bank clerk. The case of White will be tried to-day.

SHOULD the petate bugs not chaw the tobacco barns down, or the grub worm run the cattle to death, our farmers would still have something to grumble abouttoo much hay and corn to crowd into their barns, and the wild geese and grass hoppers would get away with it next

Is Barnum will come this way, we'l sell him a few petrified, merchants, on, a credit 'till never. They have nothing to sell, got no money, nor don't want any All they want is to not be moved from their stone-like position-or, if moved at all, to be moved to dinner with great

THERE's an aching void in Paris of indescribable dimensions, for a performing Italian and a Scotchwegian black bear with a double-barreled hand-organ. The State press will confer a favor by passing this around-even by cutting out the word Paris, and inserting their own

"ISLE OF INDUSTRY" is the name of Billy Shaw's mill premises, and a more beautiful and appropriate name could not have been selected. The beautiful little green park filled with maple trees, and the busy hum by day and night of the mills burrs, are the subjects of constant eulogy from strangers looking down on the same from our depot.

Miss Maggie Murray is a candidate · for a handsome gold watch to be given to the young lady who receives the highest number of votes, accompanied by 25 this city, June 14th, the proceeds to go their papers, are requested to please to the church. Miss Annie Linehan is knock our carriers down and stamp them the other competitor for the prize. The for about two hours, then notify us of sweet-heart's love not so much by the watch can be seen in A. Shire's show the fact, and we'll give them six extra sighs of his heart as she does by the size window, and is valued at $200. Total papers for the missing one. The papers for the missing one. The papers for the missing one.

Old Granny Huckleberry's Pucker-Sack.

OLD MRS. Jerusha Huckleberry with a bushel-in-dimensions drawstring puckersack, passed down the K. C. road the other day. When the conductor called for her ticket, she adjusted her old brass spectacles, unpuckered her pucker-sack, and crawfished around the bottom of it for a minute or two, while the conductor passed on a few steps, but returned to find her sack puckered again. When he said "Your ticket, Madam," she inquired if he was the conductor, and unpuckered sermons. again, and craw-fished the bottom until the conductor took up the tickets of the entire car. When he returned again, she had re-puckered, and again inquired if he was the conductor, and on being informed that he was, proceeded to adjust her glasses and unpucker again. Five minutes more clapsed, and the conductor went the entire route of his train, and the same old question, adjusting glasses, and anpuckering the sack was gone through with. After waiting ten minutes more and whistiling for a station, and after going on miles, another big game of clawing in the bottom of the sack was had, and the confluctor's smile grow a foot wifer when the Adah's bastard old maid anni grack tack and franced out a fine-toothed somb for a ficket. The two society young dadies on the opposite seat went ing to on who taherits it. into convulsions, and the conductor had o hold the train at the station until the puckersack was unloaded on the platorm, and the lost ticket brought to sight.

Theopolis Nix, of Nixville.

malest the tot and eved around THEOPOLIS NIX, who was indicted for ppening a stock of dry goods in a box car at Lexington in a very-unmerchantable manner, was followed up here Tuesday they never sweep 'round a door mat. afternoon by a writ of shove, and while in hoc, swallowed a ten cents ticket over the morphine route to glory. Through the efficacy of four gallons of strong coffee and $100 worth of pounding and strapping, the would-be passenger for the aforesaid glory, struck a return train near the last station on the mystic route, and pulled up in Joe McCarney's round house about midnight. Wednesday morning in company of a new passenger agent he went to Lexington, where a conversation will from. be held as whether or not he will be made a passenger over the Stay-All-Summer Route, with headquarters at Frank. satins.

In three days less time, Mr. Barnes ob tained 621 converts at Versailles-exactly the same number as at Paris. Sixtyfour of his converts at Versailles were from the celored folks, to whom he preached one sermon exclusively. In his letter to the Interior Journal, Mr. Barnes says : "We leave dear Versailles with a heart full of love to its dear people. They have treated us with every attention that a courteous community could show. God bless them for their kindness. They are "thoroughbreds" and no mistake in Woodford.

What a sad disappointment awaits some of our bright youths who are waiting on the streets, with cigars in their mouths or some one to give them a start in life or for their parents to die or shell outbefore turning a wheel. The truly worthy deserving and industrious get this by lint of energy and application long before such expectations of help or death of rich kin comes to their relief. Boys. there was an Astor, Girrard and a host of others who left you a legacy in their example profit by it. gtal as tordes - que

FOUNTAIN CRUMP, a nine-years-old lad om near Sanders' & Day's mill, Flem ng county, passed through here Wed day afternoon, on his read to Boones oro, in search of a mad-stone. Himelf and another small boy had been bitten by a rabid dog, on Saturday last. Crump was badly lacerated on the left arm, but the other boy received but a small scratch that didn't go through the

When you see your wife begin to tramp around the room like a Texas steer hitched to a sulky, you may know that she is getting ready for a rehearsal, and the opportune time for suggesting a present of a new Spring bonnet or a visit to her people has arrived, and woe be it into him who availeth himself not of the

WILL JOHNSON was over at Georgetown, eating German carp the other day. He says they taste exactly like fried cabbage. Some minnows put in a pond over there two years ago, are now weighing five pounds. They are strictly a still-water, mud fish, and cannot be caught with a hook, but have to be seined or shot.

THE NEWS is printed every Tuesday and Friday morning, rain or shine, blow cents each, at the Catholic picnic near or snow. Subscribers who do not get for to-day. Few shoe-maker and tailors

SOCIETY SCINTILLATIONS.

A danger foreseen is half avoided. It is a manly act to forsake an error.

By doing nothing we learn to do evil. Indian veiling is a new wool ma-

Terra-cotta gloves are among the nov-

We are never so happy or unhappy

A good example is the best

Fortune does not change men ; it unmasks them.

Jealousy is the homage that inferiority pays to merit.

If it be human two ear, then the mule is awful human.

Grief counts the seconds; happiness forgets the hours. Better a man with paradoxes than man with prejudices. He that gathereth much gold, gather-th many false friends. Women are too imaginative and sensiive to have much logic. Shovel and tongs are the latest em-dems on wedding paper. -Money is often ey a curse than a bless-

Ten dollars will quiet lots of consciences that orty sermons won't.

To live right in this life insures right beginning in the life after this.

Drunkenness turns a man out of himself and leaves a beast in his place.

Cavalry dashes through our streets are fashionable here in the afternoons.

Honesty and religion are twin sisters The traveling fiend who kept the car window up all winter, now keeps it down. We can enjoy only what we earn, for only then we can appreciate what we

To the Paris barbers: Six days shalt thou work, and on the seventh go a fish-

Horses in heaven, and jackasses in hell, would be a good text for Buford to preach

Mustard yellow pumpkin-muckle-dun are the latest shades in silks and Soldier-blue is the popular shade for cloth jackets and suits for ladies travel Responsibility is an iron-handed edu cator that strikes with double-distilled

Grand-mother of pearl buttons the size of peas, are to be used on all wash and narrow way, and dogs are lurking at weetest love, though ridiculous it nay appear. It is so easy to kick one when he is Bitter revenge is often turned to the lown that a great many cannot resist the emptation. A man named Spoonamore married ver at Semiord yesterday. A suggestive name for cold weather. The Lexington Transcipt one day ast week credited one of our items "Un God w Bruce Champi" The wicked young men of this place have utilt telling each other to "go to i-1," but say "go to Cynthiana." Don't chimpazee around the editor's desk when he's busy writing editorials-he might stick the scissors in you. Middling respectable tickets have been orinted at this office, for the "Commencement Hop," at Millersburg, June 13th. Poetry is the blossom and the fragrance of all human knowledge, human thoughts, human passions, emotions, language, walt liber will hears but Of all the riches that we hug, of all the pleasures we enjoy, we can carry no more out at this world than out of a Death seldom knocks a man down and leaves him on suspicion but generally stavs by until satisfied that the job is complete.

Ganderberry pig-squealem pies doublebox plaited around the edges, will be worn on all fashionable Commencement dinner spread of the cold agreement

Poverty is generally found chimpanzeeing around the door of him who hath pand his brains.

Death is an old hustler that never off putsa job for to-morrow which is promised ever imitate death.

A mercenary woman measures her

Mrs. Bettie Archer returned to her home in Keokuk, Iowa, last Wednesday. Willow covered demijacks are a good deal worn by fashionable fishing parties | this Spring.

Mrs. Hattie Hill, of this city, will attend the School of Design, in New York City, as soon as her session in the art school here closes.

Log-chain ankle jewels and twenty-tour pound balls, are now worn by bad colored females of Paris, who whip smaller children for merry pass-time.

The road to success is not to be run upon by seven-leagued boots. Step by step, little by little, bit by bit that is the way to wealth, wisdom and glory.

A dog scratching on the floor or howls in a particular manner, and owls hooting in the neighborhood of the house indicate an approaching death, or a book agent. French bit. Browy, F. Hinga

There are but few Kentucky papers that shows traces of industry and originality, and the News ought not to be deemed a wicked paper for running out of the Puriten ruts.

R. S. Beck and John Howell, and John Norvel, of Carlisle, without Johnson of this city, left here Wedensday afternoon, for Cumberland Falls on a fishing ex-

Robt. Baxter and Mattie Gentry, of Richmond, Ky., passed down the road Tuesday, and sought consolation at Massie Beasly's matrimonial stand, at Aberdeen.

Kentucky was named from it's principal river, which signifies, according to best authority, "the long river," or the head of a river," and not "the dark and bloody ground," Prize personal item in the Potsmouth (Ohio) Blade: "Nettie Wright, a Lewis county mot, and a critter by the name of Robinson, were mixing mud in this city Thursday. No cards.

Some men can chop wood to perfection, some can lie clients out of money to a science, but it takes an all-over man to suit the people in the newspaper business and get along without money. THE Vanceburg Courier speaks of a soft Italian sky" over in Lewis county. We would like to have a small slice of it over here to trim our old cloud-bemuddled one with around the borders. The builder who helped Lafayette to lay the corner stone of the Bunker Hill monument, fifty-seven years ago, still works in Boston. He has no hope however, of ever seeing George Washington's monument completed. The road to glory is a rugged old hog path, and is strewn on both sides with delinquent suscribers pulling at the coattail of the ambitious passenger, who, if Boot-jacks will be worn in the air again be would climb successfully, must kick as soon as the black cat season opens up them loose and climb lighter. The patent medicine man hath but

The road to glory is a steep, crooked one thing to advertise, and he advertiseth it in many cute ways and reaps a bountiful harvest. The slothful merchant allows the sheriff to act as his agent, and advertises but the one time.

If every man in the world had to write up an entire newspaper in a day, and do job work in the printing line or it's equivolent in other drudgery sufficient to pay the running expenses of a printing office, there would after that day be more appreciative men of the art preservative, in the world.

Mr. Nat Farrell, of Elizabethtown, Ills. was here Wednesday, visiting his daughter, Mrs. Alfred Corrington, of Millers. burg. The very stylish little lady whom Alf. married in Fort Smith, Ark., was the subject of many inquiries and justly bestowed compliments, on our streets Wednesday.

A young lady in Canada, fell in love with a preacher, and wrote to him that as he had converted her soul to grace she marriage. He answered her and told her to give her soul to God, her fortune to the poor, and keep her hand until some man asked her for it. That disconraged her to such an extent that she cast off her religion and is now the leading member of a "German" club.

The Trader, Turfman, Farmer and Sportsman.

Chintz bugs are ravaging the wheat in Lewis county.

J. E. Clay sold his celebrated bay geldnot time to read a live newspaper to ex- ing Mickey Dowd, to W. S. Buckner, for $800. shahaann ti alternam bibitiris s CHARLIE FOOTE caught a five-pound bass and a three-pounds newlight, above Maple Island, in Stoner, Wednesday. John Lyle, of this city, refused an offer Monday, of $1,200 for his harness mare "Magggie Q," stinted to Geo. Wilkes.

The offer was made by Ben R. Shaw, cigar manufacturer, of Cincinnati.

BILL NYE'S PAPER.

-THE-

TWO DOLLARS PER YEAR AND FREIGHT, OR $2,000 FOR 1,000 YEARS Address, Boomerang, Laramie City, Wyoming Territory.

THE FASHIONABLY-BRED TROTTING STALLION

BANGOTTE TE STANDARD VENTURE AT By RYSDYK'S HAMBLETONIAN. First dam, Rosedale, by Sayre's Harry

Clay. Second dam, Orange Co. Mare, by Prince Duroc.

Third dam, Miranda, a running mare from Canada. Will be permitted to serve a limited number of mares the ensuing season, beginning April 1st and ending September 1st, 1882, at $50 To Insure a Living Colt.

The money due when the mare is known to be in foal, or WHEN THE OWNER PARTS WITH HER. At the time of service a note will be required, which in event of the mare not proving in foal will be re-

Due care will be exercised to prevent accidents or escapes, but no responsibility will be assumed for any that may occur. to all who have patronized the house Good stabling and pasturage provided for mares from a distance, and at reasonable rates.

He will be located at my farm, on the Clay & Kiser turnpike, six miles from Paris, Bourbon county, Ky., two miles from Kiser Station, Kentucky Central Railroad.

For further particulars address KELLER THOMAS, Paris, Ky.

CHARTERED 1870.

PAID UP CAPITAL, $53,700. Conducts a General Banking Business. Special attention to collections, and remittances promptly made to all parts of the United States, Canada or Europe. A. G. STITT. R. T. RR.

President Cashier. W. H. H. JOHNSON, (D. D. CONWAY

W.B. CONWAY Prop'r. Clerks. JOHNSON HOUSE, MILLERSBURG, KY.

One square from railroad depot. GOOD LIVERY STABLE ATTACHED. The kindest attention given and guests made comfortable.

Good Sample Rooms. A table filled with all the delicacies of the season. RATES REASONABLE.

JAS. A. McCANN,

MONUNENTS

Granite and Marble. Third St., Maysville, Kentucky.

JAS. McARDLE, TAILOR,

Grand Opera Building, CINCINNATI, - OHIO.

--- DEALER IN-

FURNITURE, Window Shades, Carpets, Oil Cloths, Mattresses, &c.,

was ready to give him her fortune in Special Attention Given to Undertaking and Repairing. Main Street, Paris, Ky.

LAMAR HOUSE,

(GREEN CHEATHAM, PROP'R.)

CARLISLE, KY.

One Square from Railroad Depot-All Baggage transferred to and fro, free of charge! LIVERY STABLE ATTACHED nov14y

LAUBLY. SADDLER,

CARLISLE,

thing pertaining to the trade.

Calls particular attention of the farmers and horsemen, to the fact that he is now prepared to put up, FINE HARNESS AND SADDLES a specialty. Will sell at lower figures than heretofore for CASH. Special at tention paid to repairs. I keep constantly on hand a large stock of whips, collars, trace-chains, and every-

Learne of the second

A. G. Stitt, M. D.,

-PRACTITIONER OF-Medicine & Surgery.

> Office adjoining Deposit Bank. Millersburg, Ky.

Hiram Bassett,

-GENERAL-

Insurance Agent. Represents Hartford Fire, Bowling Green and Maysville Masonic Life Com-

T. H. GLENN

ATTORNEY AT LAW, Carlisle, Ky.

Will practice in the courts of Nicholas and adjoining counties. Special and prompt attention given to collections. Mrs. JANE PURNELL, | JNO. R. PURNELL, Proprietress.

MAIN STREET. Table and rooms second to no country hotel in the State.

Large and well furnished Sample Rooms for Commercial Travelers. Good Livery Stable attached. Refer Terms Reasonable.

Shortest and Quickest -ROUTE TO-MISSOURI.

> KANSAS AND TEXAS.

Tickets to all points NORTH, EAST AND WEST. BAGGAGE CHECKED

THROUGH. Special Rates to EMIGRANTS.

For further particulars, apply to FRANK CARR. Paris. Ky. C. L. BROWN, GEN'L PASSENGER AGT., Covington, Ky.

Time Table in Effect since May 14, '82. L've Covington... 8:00 a m and 2:45 p m Arr. Paris 11:25 a m and 6:05 p m L've Lexington... 7:30 a m and 5:00 p m Arr. Paris 8:25 a m and 5:55 p m L've Maysville.... 5:45 a m and 12:30 p m Arr. Paris 8:25 a m and 3:00 p m

L've Paris for Maysville 6:30 a m and 5:50 p m

Richmond Express runs daily. PHARES T. THROOP, Att'y-At-Law, CARLISLE. - - KY.

Office over B. F. Adair's grocery. nov15v

POSTED!

I hereby forwarn all persons, that my farm is poated, and all trespassers either hunting or fishing on my premises will be prosecuted to the extent of the law. My friends will please not ask the privilege of violating my positive resolution. JESSE TURNEY.

COLLIER & SHARP.

JAMES M. COLLIER, DEALER IN

SALT, COAL, LUMBER, GRAIN, Broadway, - - - Millersburg

I also have a saw mill at Licking Station, on the K. C. railroad, and can fill all orders for cut lumber at lowest market prices. I will move the mill to any locality where a sufficient number of logs for a yard can be established. A fuil stock of Lumber kept constantly on hand at this point.

IMPROVED

Fully Warranted, Made of Tennessee Timber and Tennessee Iron!

Best Wagon on Wheels! McCORMICK REAPERS AND MOWERS AND THE IM-PROVED HOOSIER

GRAIN DRILL. FOR SALE, BY JAMES M. ROBY,

Millersburg, - - Kentucky.

Also agent for Ball's Tobacco Screw.